

LOOK OUT FOR THIS DANGER SIGNAL.

One of the Most Annoying Symptoms of Catarrh Described.

A very annoying symptom of catarrh is a constant desire to clear the throat of something that is constantly accumulating there. It is being caused by a series of reflexes or a foreign substance in the body. It is a symptom of a catarrhal disease, and the disease being, the throat becomes congested and inflamed by catarrh, and in which condition the patient is compelled to constantly move his head and neck, the patient even developing habits of nervousness, chills, chills, and fits of shivering. It is a sign that the voice changes, becomes hoarse, and in extreme cases, it may even become lost.

TALK OF THE STAGE WORLD.

New York Actors Engaged for a Kansas City Season.

The Russell-Claire "War" Boomed "La Cigale's" Business in Boston.

The organization that W. F. Blanche is to take to Kansas City for a season of ten weeks is now completed, and Mr. Blanche leaves New York today. The company will open in "The Waves of Sin" at the Auditorium formerly the Warde Grand. A New York syndicate has now taken that property. Those who have been engaged are Miss Eleanor Carey, Miss Leslie Leigh, Miss Merritt Osborne, Miss Edith Pollock, Miss Emma Madsen, Miss Jennie Ellison, George Lewis, W. J. Walter, William Friend, Wilbur Hudson, George Orth, John Hindlay, Franklin Roberts, Phil McCarthy and Carl St. Anthony. Fred Percy Marsh is the stage manager.

The "Niobe" company to break a big jump from Cleveland to St. Louis, recently staged three "one-night stands." The advance agent when he got to one of these places—Daytona Ind.—repaired at once to the Dolan Opera-House where the company was playing.

"What kind of an orchestra have you got?" asked the manager.

"How many are there in it?"

"Three," responded the manager with a bland smile, "a piano, stool and cover."

Joseph Reynolds, who has just returned from Boston, throws a dumper upon one of the prettiest stage dresses he has ever put on. He says that Little Miss Attale Claire are particularly good friends, and were chattering all the time that the little fellow was waded. "La Cigale" is doing well, and business. The little rivaling business paid well.

Reynolds' dates at home have been arranged in this way:
